RT. HON. J. G. GARDINER SPEAKS IN ATHABASCA

Seventeenth and final Liberal nominating convention was held in Athabasca on Saturday night, June 20, and was attended by a record crowd of over 300, who had driven over muddy roads from all parts of the constituency to be present.

Unanimously the choice of the convention was J. M. Dechene, representative of the constituency in the federal government since 1940, and previous to that a member of the provincial legislature since 1921. Mr. Dechene was nominated by R. J. Whitely of Athabasca, seconded by W. J. Lambert of St. Paul. Immediately after his nomination the delegates gave a spontaneous demonstration of their esteem and affection for Mr. Dechene when they broke into "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow".

In accepting the nomination, Mr. Dechene paid tribute to the pioneers of the district whose arduous labor had brought to its present state of prosperity, and quoted Victor Hugo who had said "No real effort is ever lost". "As I travel about this constituency, I am proud to be your representative, because I see the progress that has been achieved in less than a generation", he said.

J. P. Connors, Alberta Organizer, emphasized the necessity of friendly contacts by the delegates present among the Athabasca riding. He outlined the growth of Liberal organization in the province of Alberta since 1935.

Provincial Leader, J. Harper Prowse, told the meeting "we have to put our grass roots down in the provincial organization, but the main objective must be to keep a Liberal government at Ottawa, because the federal government has the responsibility and power of laying down policies which will determine the kind of prosperity and opportunity we are to have in this great nation of ours."

Greetings to the delegates were extended by Mayor Hall of Athabasca on behalf of the town. Vice-President of the Alberta Liberal Association, and son of J. M. Dechene, Andre Dechene, spoke briefly, congratulating the meeting on the tribute to the spirit of Liberalism exhibited by the interest shown.

The Rt. Hon. Jas. G. Gardiner, federal Minister of Agriculture, was guest speaker. Speaking of Mr. Dechene's nomination he said "this man has offered his services not only to you, but on every occasion that we have called on him to help, he has given generously to us in Saskatchewan. His efforts on behalf of Liberalism not only here but outside are well known to a great many people."

Referring to Mr. Drew's opening campaign speech in Guelph, Mr. Gardiner said that it was the habit of the Conservatives to criticize the expenditures made by the Liberal government. He pointed out, however, that no opposition party in Ottawa had suggested that they would cut down on the expenditure of 47% out of the 4 billion spent by the government last year on defence. This 47% can be warded off.

One of the greatest expenditures made by the government

J. G. GARDINER

J. M. DECHENE, M.P.

is a necessary expense in order to insure that a third world war is on social services, one billion dollars each year. 80% of all the money being paid for social services in Canada today comes either directly or indirectly out of the federal treasury, the Minister said. The Tories, he stated, did not advocate the cutting of any of these social services, and therefore they would have to continue to spend that one billion dollars if they were returned to power.

It was at Bagotville that he took the training as pilot of jet planes. And it was there that he lost his life in a routine flight some thirty miles from the station. Cause of the accident is still unknown.

He was widely known throughout Alberta. He leaves to mourn his loss as immediate relatives, his wife, Mrs. Alice T. Hall, and young daughter; his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn G. ## Gardiner Speaks In Athabasca...

Another billion dollars is spent on the ordinary activities of government, such as police force, customs, road work, railway expansion, etc.

Mr. Gardiner questioned statement of the Tory leader that they could cut taxes and still maintain the defences and pay the social service costs they claim they would not cut.

Dealing with the position of agriculture in Canada at the present time, the Minister said 100 million dollars had been spent last year in this country on the promotion of agriculture. Since PFA went into effect in 1939, 144 million dollars has been spent, but he said that when he was accused of being a Santa Claus for the west, he pointed out that $188 million dollars had been paid in the same period for freight assistance to help those producing hogs and cattle and poultry and eggs in Eastern Canada and B.C.

"You are being told we have lost the British market," Mr. Gardiner said. In reply to that charge, he stated that there is no question about Britain wanting our farm products. "They would buy them and they would take them in considerable quantity if we were prepared to sell them at the price.

Britain is getting them from elsewhere." Canadians consume today all of the hogs, beef, eggs, poultry and cheese they produce, partly because of increased prosperity and partly because of a population increase of two million people since the war.

Wheat, said Mr. Gardiner, is the one product of which we have a surplus, and it is the one product which every country in the world consumes. "We are selling out of Canada today seven million tons more food than we were selling at the end of the war out into the other parts of the world, and that extra seven million tons is practically all made up of wheat."

Chairman of the convention was Lionel Tellier of Westlock. Elected as officers of the Athabasca Federal Liberal Association were Walter J. Lambert, St. Paul, to the presidency, and Willie Paquette of Bonnyville to the vice-presidency. Laval J. Fortier of St. Paul became secretary-treas., and regional vice-presidents are: Graham Walker, Westlock; Irvin J. Baril, Bonnyville; Lionel R. Tellier, Westlock; Raynor Whiteley, Athabasca and E. Bullis, Elk Point.

Mr. Melaney, Cold Lake, acted as chairman of the resolutions committee. The convention endorsed resolutions asking for a national park in the Athabasca constituency; calling for an amendment to the Canadian Farm Loan Board regulations; the speedy development of the bituminous tar sands of the McMurray-Waterways area by assis-

When your field work calls for more real pull, live-weight traction will see you through.

The hydraulic TRACTION BOOSTER in the CA and WD Tractors changes deadweight to liveweight. Weight of both tractor and implement is automatically shifted to bear down on drive wheels when soil is stubborn and tillage is tough.

The hydraulic TRACTION BOOSTER reduces wheel slippage — enables the CA and WD to do draw-bar jobs that normally would require heavier tractors. Stop in and let us show you how it works.

The Japanese Priest Said: "DOMINUS VOBISCUM"

It was early Sunday morning in Tokyo. A cosmopolitan congregation had assembled in the Catholic church for the first Mass of the day. Along with the Japanese present, there were English, French and Portuguese sailors, the family of a Belgian diplomat, Filipino business men and a sprinkling of military police.

The Japanese priest was compelled to start the service without an assistant to answer the prayers. He had hardly begun the Mass, when a burly GI rose from his seat, walked to the altar and took the place of the absent server.

"At first," he said afterwards, "I felt a little strange serving a Japanese priest in a Japanese church. But after he turned around and said in Latin: 'Dominus vobiscum!'... I felt just the way I did when I served Father O'Malley in our church back home."

"Dominus vobiscum!"... "The Lord be with you!"

How familiar and homelike these Latin words sounded... to the English, the French, the Portuguese, Belgians and Filipinos... for they had heard them Sunday after Sunday in their own church at home.

Despite their language differences, each could follow the prayers of the Mass... and the actions of the priest. For each had a double-column prayer book — one column in Latin, one in his native language.

Many services of divine worship in the Catholic Church are conducted in the native language of the people. But the Mass... the official and world-wide act of Catholic worship... is generally conducted in Latin because this dead language never changes and is most appropriate to express the fundamentally unchanging worship instituted by Christ at the Last Supper.

Perhaps you have heard Catholics speak of the Mass... or have seen them thronging to Mass on Sunday and other days. If you would like to know more about the Mass... and why the Mass attracts millions of Catholics to church regularly... we will be happy to send you a free pamphlet explaining the Mass and reasons behind it in a clear-cut manner. ### Cause Of Prison Riots

The American Prison Association recently released a report which terms prison riots "costly and dramatic symptoms of a faulty prison administration."

Noting the "unprecedented number of outbursts of mass violence and mutinous behavior" in our prisons in the last three years, the report concludes that "... the underlying cause of poor prison administration stems from a lack of public understanding of the problems and from a consequent reluctance to provide adequate financial support and to keep politics out of management."

The report's conclusion is that riots are usually the result of neglect of correctional and penal institutions, which sometimes reaches the proportion of criminal negligence. It expresses the opinion that the immediate issue which usually causes a prison riot is only a symptom of basic faults of policy.

Because we haven't had any prison riots in Alberta, it would seem that perhaps prison conditions in this country are a lot better than those south of the border. It is generally conceded that politics have little or no part in the carrying out of Canadian justice.

However, it should be a warning to us, this prison-riot condition that exists in the United States, to check up and be sure our own house is in order. The modern concept of prison life is that it should reform and rehabilitate the wrong-doer and not be inflicted just as a punishment to make him embittered for life.

Good Business Seen

Dr. Arthur M. Weimer, dean of the School of Business of Indiana University, recently told a group of savings and loan officials that it now appears that business will continue good throughout 1953.

Dr. Weimer admitted that the economy was now experiencing weak spots here and there but he predicted that a high level business activity would continue throughout the year. Weimer believes higher interest rates on GI and FHA loans have given an impetus to home-building and that building this year will equal or exceed the volume of 1952. He also notes an unusually high rate of personal savings in the early months of 1953 and a high rate of business spending for equipment and new space.

The Indiana University School of Business dean does not expect business activity to move sharply in either direction in the near future. He says farmers are being pinched by lower prices received and high costs, which have not come down proportionately with prices received, and that they may continue to feel negative results from this squeeze. He does not expect the pinch to develop into a depression, however.

The 'Snowmen'

In all the fanfare and excitement over the scaling of Mount Everest recently by a New Zealand beekeeper and an Indian guide, little mention was made of the "abominable Snowmen" who are supposed to inhabit the slopes of the world's highest mountain. The snowmen have long been reported on the heights of Everest and climbers in years past have returned with varying evidence as to their existence.

Edmund P. Hillary, the Auckland beekeeper who is one of two men who have looked down from the top of Everest, was convinced of the existence of the snowmen before he left on the recent Everest expedition. He is reported to have said he saw photographs of footprints of the creatures brought back from the slopes of Everest by former climbers.

In fact, Hillary was said to have had two goals in life—the scaling of Everest and the capture of one of these snowmen. Now we hear that Hillary is going back to the Himalayas. Maybe he'll accomplish his goal this time. He can have a lot of fun looking, anyhow.

Best Brains At Stake

By Dr. H. E. Smith, Dean, Faculty of Education

Some say the Composite School will destroy the best brains in our society. Others say it is the only democratic and proper answer to the demand for universal high school education. Possibly in this case both points of view may be true. It may be that you can't at the same time stimulate the best brains and satisfy mediocre talent in a common high school. If the curriculum must be watered down to the level of the average student, obviously the brighter minds will suffer. On the contrary, if adolescent youth were segregated on basis of mental capacity into schools of different types, what then would become of the honored principle of equality? We seem to be faced with a hard dilemma.

The secondary schools of England are of three rather clearly differentiated types. The Grammar School takes at the age of twelve, and on the basis of sharply cutting tests, the academically minded and the brightest pupils. These are set on the road to University and other institutions of the most advanced training.

The Junior Technical School is open to twelve-year-olds with a bent for manual arts. Many of its graduates will go into industry at fifteen or sixteen, and some will go forward to various institutions of somewhat specialized training in vocational fields.

The third type, the Modern School, will receive the great mass of twelve-year-olds and give them educational opportunities similar to those offered in our composite schools. But few can expect admission to universities because the program lacks rigor and intensity. Many of the critics of our own composite school contend that it also lacks rigor and intensity. The bright pupils, they assert, have not been challenged, have never been pressed to discover their powers, have learned to be satisfied with only their second or third best.

Our Canadian universities are saying this, too. But can the English system be squared with our conception of democracy? Will Canadian parents submit to a segregation of their children into institutions of contracting level? Our answer at present seems to be "no". The composite school is itself the answer.

This is but one of many basic problems in Canadian education. The field needs not only many teachers for the everyday work of the schools. It needs also many teachers and many citizens willing to tackle basic issues in education. Here at least is one challenge to our best brains.

Heavy Rains Mixed Blessings

In the Prairie Provinces the heavy rains of late have held up seeding operations, particularly in the southern districts. It is estimated that five to 20 per cent of the wheat acreage still remains to be sown, and in view of the lateness of the season it is expected that some of this acreage will be planted to coarse grains and some will go to summer-fallow. Weeds are a serious problem in some areas, but in general the crops are in good condition.

In North Central States, U.S.A., planting of the spring wheat crop is near completion. Only in parts of North Dakota and Montana does any appreciable acreage remain to be planted. Moisture conditions are ample in all sections of the spring wheat region, and the outlook is bright in spite of lateness.

Dumb Girls Best Wives?

Dr. Mary Macaulay, a British marriage counsellor, told the National Marriage Guidance Council in England recently that dumb girls sometimes make the best wives. Dr. Macaulay cautions against the intellectual wife, or one who reads too many books.

The girl whose only ambition is to be a wife and mother, and who does what comes naturally, and occasionally blows off some steam, has an excellent outlook for success in marriage, according to Dr. Macaulay. But the girl with a graduate school degree—the intellectual type—has a poor outlook! Part of the reason for this, according to the British expert, is that people good with their minds are often not good with their emotions.

That's what the feminine counsellor says, and the group to which she spoke (composed of some hundred educated women) is reported to have applauded her words loudly. There may be more to the "dumb blonde" than meets the eye.

Note and Comment

Personally, we find that appeal, in members of the opposite sex, makes life interesting and passes time—even though our civilization prevents us from doing anything about it.

In 5 years, the number of horses there dropped from 19,399 to 10,709—while TRACTORS increased from 3,939 to 6,184!!

OLD AGE SECURITY

A MILLION DOLLARS A DAY

The federal government is now spending nearly a million dollars a day to provide security and assistance to our senior citizens. Old age security for those over 70 years of age, now paid entirely by the federal government is costing $334,916,000 a year. The 50 per cent of old age assistance to those 65 to 69 years of age is costing the federal government $22,000,000 a year, or a total of $356,916,000 a year, nearly a million dollars for each day of the year, including Sundays.

A year and a half ago federal government expenditure on old age pensions was costing about $100,000,000 a year for about 300,000 pensioners, the federal government paying 75 per cent of the basic pension and the provinces 25 per cent.

The new system commenced in January, 1952. Now the federal government is paying 100 per cent of the basic pension to those over 70 and the number of pensioners has increased to 686,127. In addition, the federal government is paying 50 per cent of the basic pension to 87,675 persons aged 65 to 69 years. The effect of the change has been to increase federal government expenditure for old age security and assistance from about $100,000,000 a year to about $357,000,000, and to decrease the total provincial expenditures for this purpose by about $18,000,000 a year.

In 1950-51 the government of Saskatchewan paid out $2,323,000 as its 25 per cent share of basic old age pensions. This year, 1953-54, the estimated expenditure of the province's 50 per cent share of assistance to those 65 to 69 is $1,217,000, a reduction of $1,106,000 in expenditures on assistance to the aged.

The old age security and assistance now being provided by the Liberal government at Ottawa is the most generous in the world. It is part of a greatly expanded program of social security expenditures by the federal government on assistance to the aged, to the blind, on family allowance and health on which the federal government is spending about 1½ billion dollars a year. This is about three times the entire revenues of the federal government in a year just before the last war.

LETTER TO LOUISA

Nurse's Urgent Desire To Marry May Be Driving Eligible Boy Friends Away

I read your letters every week and think you give good advice. I would like very much for you to help me as I have been disappointed so many times.
I am a nurse and enjoy my work very much. I am a member of a church and go each Sunday. I have lots of friends and enjoy making new ones.
I took care of my father until he passed away about three years ago and I am now in my thirties.
I love a boy, whom I met through a friend. I went out with him twice and the last time he told me that he loved me and that he would be back in about a week or write. He hasn't come or written and it has been about a month.
I couldn't get time off so I wrote and told him I couldn't. And now I can get off, so I wrote and told him so. Did I do wrong in writing him? I love him. People say they can't see why I don't meet the right person. I would like to marry and be happy.
Write me please.

Answer:
It is perfectly normal at your age to want to marry and have a home and family. And in your profession you surely have the opportunity of meeting eligible men. But I wonder L, if you are not so obvious in your desire to marry, that you are driving your prospects away before they really get to know you.
This young man you are worried about has only dated you twice. It usually takes longer than that for people to decide that they are in love and begin thinking about marriage.
The surest way to make a man stop dating is for a girl to become serious before he does. After all, the man likes to think he is the pursuer even when he is not.
I don't think you did wrong in writing to him that you could get time off, since you had written before that you could not. If he is the sensitive type, he may have thought you didn't want to see him. But you have let him know that you would like to have him come so don't follow it up. Let him make the next move.

Be friendly and nice when you do see him but don't try to push him into marriage too fast.
It is often wise to make plans to meet and entertain young men but keep those things to yourself and don't be too obvious about them.

Gideons Comment On Vermilion "Red School House"

The Vermilion district now has a "Camp" of Gideons, the men responsible for placing Bibles in hotels and hospitals and who give grade five school children each a gift of a New Testament.
In the school term just closing, the Gideon magazine, Torch and Trumpet reported from Toronto that:

"When Grade V pupils in the public school at Vermilion were presented with their Youth Testaments in the middle of March by Gideons Roy Watkins, Overt Gunderson and Field Secretary Hugh Coldridge, it marked the gift of over 250 Testaments to the school division. The Gideon trio were introduced to the scholars by Supt. S. Simonson."

The editors commented that this was a case of pupils attending a red school house in Vermilion receiving a gift of red-covered testaments.

ERROR COSTS TWO TEETH
CHICAGO — Roberta Ann Cole, 11, was sent to the dentist for treatment of two molars. By mistake Roberta went to the wrong dentist's office. Dr. M. B. Cohen extracted the two teeth instead of treating them. Now, Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Cole, the girl's parents, are suing Cohen for $100,000 for extracting the teeth. Both dentists have offices on the same floor in the same building.

At home I am always warning my small niece to wipe the table before she lays it.

One day we were visiting a friend of not very long standing. As she prepared to lay the table for tea, little Jean said, "Mommy, says to be sure to wipe that dirty table Mrs.—" You can imagine how red my face was!

E. S. of Gibbons

One evening my boy friend and I were returning a table which I had borrowed. I opened the door to push the table inside of the neighbor's kitchen. Being dark I turned on my flashlight. There stood the man himself in his underwear. Was I ever embarrassed!

"This Is So Sudden"

Recipient of Leap Year proposal — I regret I cannot give you an answer now, Gertrude. Ask me again in 1954.

Lucky Man

"Angus, they tell me you and Brother Donald were in a railway accident. Did you collect any damages?"

"We did. But never a shilling wud we have, had I not thoct to kick Donald in the face."

New Version

History Teacher — Mr. Sopholess, who was it that followed King Edward VI, of England?

Mr. Sopholess — Queen Mary.

Teacher — And who followed Mary?

Mr. Sopholess — Her little lamb.

Probably So!

A dear old lady was passing a rural stream where a company of nude soldiers was enjoying a refreshing swim.

"Oh, dear!" she exclaimed. "These must be our shock troops."

Not Yet

"Have you any children, Mr. Smith?"

"Yes, three daughters."

"Do they live at home with you?"

"Not one of them — they are not married yet."

Quite Natural

Wife: "If you took less interest in horse racing we should be better off today. You've had horses on the brain all your life."

Husband: "Yes. Quite right. That's why I happened to marry a nag I suppose."

Habit of Complaint

"I suppose you were thankful for the heavy rain."

"Oh, yes," replied Farmer Corn-tassel "though I don't see why them weather folks couldn't provide to keep it in the fields instead of letting it stray around muddin' up the roads."

Dear, Dear

Here's to you dear, And here's to the dear that's not here.

If the dear that's not was here, my dear, I wouldn't be calling you "dear," my dear.

She Approved

"If you can't do more work, I shall have to get another maid."

"Yes, I could do with an assistant."

Dead Three Minutes; Revives

BROOKS — A young married woman died for three minutes during an operation at Brooks and lived to tell the tale.

The woman who died, Mrs. Angela Croloczyk, arrived in Canada only six weeks ago from Germany and was undergoing an operation for an internal complaint.

The 28-year-old mother of one child owes her resurrection to Dr. W. C. Prowse and his assistant, Dr. J. A. Reynar.

When her heart stopped beating, on the operating table, Dr. Prowse made a deep incision to massage the heart while Dr. Reynar pumped oxygen down the throat.

A heavy dose of cortisone was administered and Dr. Prowse massaged the heart for 2½ to 3 minutes. He had all put given up hope when the heart bounced back into action.

Dr. Prowse intends submitting a summary of the case to the Canadian Medical Journal so that other doctors may benefit from his experience.

Lac la Biche Team Wins Two

LAC LA BICHE—On Sunday, June 14, the Lac la Biche men's team journeyed to Venice to partake in the Venice Sports Day and picnic, and to stage a couple of exhibition games. A very enthusiastic crowd was on hand to watch the games; as a matter of fact, so much so that during the course of the second game it was at times hard to differentiate between the players and the spectators, who kept crowding closer and closer to the first base line.

Lac la Biche was successful in both games, with the following scores: Plamondon 1, Lac la Biche 17; Lac la Biche 18, Amber Valley and Boyle combined, 10.

Rains Cause Some Inconvenience

LAC LA BICHE—The farmers of the Lac la Biche district are greatly pleased with the recent rains, as crops were badly in need of a good soaking. However, the general townspeople are beginning to wish that some of this mud could be confined to the farms.

Streets have started to cave in, where the ditches were dug for the sewer and water last year, and great big holes seem to be the order of the day. Very few cars have ventured out for a couple of days, and those that did more than likely wish they hadn't.

Briereville News Briefs

Mr. Gordon Anderson went to Smoky Lake the other day, dealing for a new truck.

Mrs. Robert Whitford and family and Mrs. Roy Whitford and family had the pleasure of having their sister-in-law, Mrs. Don Banta and family of Bend, Oregon, U.S.A. to visit with them for a day. Mrs. Banta also had her two sisters accompany her on the trip. Mr. and Mrs. Don Banta are well known in this district, as they were one-time residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Emile Desjarlais are the proud parents of another girl, born in the Lac la Biche Hospital on June 4.

Mr. Albert Desjarlais and family moved to this district this spring. They are living on the quarter known as Austin's quarter section.

Rain was needed badly and some fell last night and this morning which was really appreciated. The fields need more rain though, as the land is very dry.

The annual Grandin Parish Picnic was held on Sunday, May 31, on the Briereville sports grounds. A good time was had by all, although the weather was rather cool.

Atmore News Briefs

The Atmore Baseball Club is now finished working on the baseball diamond. They have played one game so far, coming up on top and beating Plamondon.

The Catholic Church is sponsoring a Sports Day on July 5. Four baseball teams and two girls' softball teams will be competing. There will be amusements for all with refreshments and suppers being sold. A show will follow the picnic. There will also be a dance after midnight sponsored by the Baseball Club.

Mrs. Genoud, the mother of Mr. Victor Genoud, has now moved in town.

Mr. William Duigon and family are away on a trip to B.C.

Mr. Frederick of Blue Jay, had the mishap of rolling his new car over near here. The damages are estimated to be quite large.
